

Darth Maul & C-3PX

Prior to the second battle of Naboo, during the entire time Darth Maul served as apprentice to Darth Sidious, Maul wanted nothing more than to reveal the Sith presence in the heart of the Republic. Sidious held Maul in check for years, sending him on missions of stealth and assassination. Darth Maul was forced to walk a fine line, between accomplishing his missions and keeping his presence confined to the shadowy edges of the galaxy.

The Maul presented here is the stealthy assassin who aided Palpatine in his shadow coup. Swift Attack and Shadow Strike are nerfed cards unless they're played after a card with SHADOW in the title. Then those cards can be devastating.

C-3PX is an assassin droid modified to look like a protocol droid. Maul designed and programmed the droid himself, and infused the droid with dark side energy to make a truly lethal assistant.
